

S. JAFRI'S COMPARISON OF POSTOFFICE AND GMAIL EMAIL SYSTEMS

Question	Postoffice	New System
How much disk space is allocated to me?	150MB	2000MB
When I connect to the email server is it secure?	No	Yes
Is there a firewall protecting against hackers?	No	Yes
Is there other intruder prevention technology in place?	No	Yes
Are you monitoring the system 24/7 against possible attacks?	No	Yes
Are there controls in place for physical access to the server?	No	Yes
Is there a back-up server available in case the main server crashed?	No	Yes
Is there dedicate staff working 24/7 to make sure email server or email services remain online?	No	Yes
Are you using top of the line antivirus solution?	No	Yes
Are you using top of the line antispam solution?	No	Yes
Can Lakehead University Server Administrator log into my account using their administrative privileges?	Yes – An administrator can log into any account with administrative privileges	No – Administrator cannot log into your account with administrative privileges.
Can Lakehead University Server Administrator easily read my email in system?	Yes – A server Administrator can use their username and password to read emails in the system	No – A server administrator cannot use their username and password to read emails in the system
Can Lakehead University Server Administrator monitor all incoming and outgoing email messages thru the email system?	Yes	No
Can I use instant messaging technology to collaborate with my colleagues and students?	No	Yes
Can I have an audio conversation using the Instant Messaging system with my colleague and students?	No	Yes
Does university intellectual property policy applies to the email system?	Yes	Yes
Does University Copyright policy applies to the email system?	yes	yes